Department Spotlight

Physical Education Department

Our Health and Physical Education Department is committed to empowering all students to develop lifelong physical and health literacy through meaningful, engaging, and inclusive experiences. Through collaboration we strive to create a supportive environment where every individual feels valued, respected, and inspired to explore movement in ways that bring them joy and confidence.

As a department, we have celebrated many exciting events with our students so far this year, both in the classroom and through our co-curricular programs. We kicked off the year with a strong start at our Terry Fox event; a school-wide, student-led initiative that raised an impressive $6,700 for cancer research. Our SHSM and Recreation Leadership students did an amazing job planning, preparing, and facilitating this event. This semester's Leadership students are preparing to host and mentor our incoming Grade 8 students as they get ready for their transition to high school.

Our fall and winter athletics seasons were highly successful, with 14 different programs offering a wide range of opportunities for our student-athletes. Tryouts for our six spring programs are now underway, and we look forward to another exciting season of Celtics Athletics!

We also have a dynamic and motivated group of students that make up our Athletic Council. They recently wrapped up the Intramural March Mash-Up event, where teams competed in a different sport each day, showcasing their spirit and athleticism. Up next is our annual Handball Fundraising Tournament, with registration taking place this week. For information about events and to see highlights from courses, intramurals, and teams, follow our Instagram page: @sinclaircelticsathletics and cheer us on. Go Celtics!
