CONNECTIONS

Sinclair Support Highlight:

Each week we will highlight a support available to our students at Sinclair.

The Graduation Coach for Black Students program provides culturally responsive, student-centred supports for Black-identifying students to improve their overall well-being and academic success. Through advocacy, mentorship, and individualized support, the program works to identify and address systemic barriers as students transition from high school into their chosen post-secondary path. Julie Usih, Sinclair's Graduation Coach for Black Students, is available in Room 220F on Monday's and Wednesday's.

For more information or to connect, please contact julie.usih@ddsb.ca

Students can speak to their guidance counsellor to access the many supports available.

Important Reminders

FINANCIAL LITERACY TEST

The financial literacy test is taking place on October 1st.
This is for students taking the Grade 10 Careers course.

Students are required to pass the Financial Literacy as a graduation requirement.
There will be an opportunity to re-write on October 8th for students who are not successful.

Information was sent home during the first week of school with those students who will be writing on October 1st.
